With the Current Expense bill of the House passed in third reading by the Senate today and the Salaries bill completed in a couple of days, the bills of the Senate and House should go to a conference committee on Friday or Saturday of this week. There is much speculation as to the make-up of the committee.

A native went to the police station this forenoon and complained to Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth that a negro had threatened to disembowel him. When questioned sharply by the deputy sheriff, it was found that someone had told him and that someone else had told the party that told him. This being the case, no steps could be taken.

Arguments on the demurrer in the injunction matter against Iwilei were heard by Judge Gear at 4:30 p. m. yesterday. Thomas Fitch for petitioners and Andrews and Peters for respondents. The contention of the defendants were virtually all overruled. A question regarding an informality in the papers was taken under advisement by the Court.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church will give a social to the "Blue Ribbon Committee" of Camp McKinley and friends tonight, at 7:30, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Cory, the third house off Berentania avenue, on Alexander street. Members of the church are requested to be present. Friends and strangers are cordially invited to attend.

Gus N. Hanna and Miss Alice Clarke were married in St. Andrew's Cathedral last evening, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Willis officiating and the Rev. V. H. Kitec assisting. The bridesmaids were Miss Carrie Clark, sister of the bride, and Miss Helen Smith. The groomsmen were George Lucas and Samuel Woods. The bride was given away by her uncle, Henry Smith. The surpliced choir sang Wray Taylor presided at the organ.

In the Police Court yesterday, Judge Wilcox rendered his decision in the case of Prince David Kawananakoa vs. W. M. Cunningham and J. A. Morgan, charged with conspiracy and more particularly, the drugging of the race horse Weller. The Judge said he had carefully weighed the evidence and that he did not believe a Grand Jury would bring an indictment against the defendants; further, that no jury would convict them.

Throat Sore? There's no telling what a sore throat will do if you give it "right of way." Uncertain remedies often cause dangerous delay. Make a cure sure with PAIN-KILLER, known for half a century as a specific for sore throat, croup, coughs, and all kindred troubles. Keep it by you for an emergency. It never fails. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c, and 50c.
